BROADWAY AND MAIN STREET MEET ON DIAMOND.

Bill Barg pulled off another big base ball event Sunday when he lined up the Broadway merchants against the Main-street business men. The game was a great success and drew an immense crowd. The Broadway contingent were victors.

Einstein was the first man at the bat for Main street and reached first on a long foul over the back stop. Guy Hull and Chamberlain followed with singles and when big Bill Price fell twice trying to catch Jamieson's long fly Einstein came in with the first run.

Lamb proved himself to be a regular Chief Meyers when he caught a high ball bare handed. Carl Plump wore a glove but took it off each time a ball came his way.

Tom Tuite thought it was easier to stop a ball with his eye than with a glove and is wearing a curtain this week as a result of his mistake.

In the eleventh inning one of Flynn's wild pitches hit in front of the plate and the ball bounced under Lamb's chest protector and was lost until Judge Lampkin bounced Lamb up and down two or three times and the ball dropped .

The winners have challenged the winners of the Red Sox Giant series but McGraw and Stahl have cold feet and refuse to accept the defi.

RAILROAD DEVELOPMENT WILL BOOM PENINSULA

The announcement of the plan to install a fast electric suburban service from San Francisco to connect at Palo Alto, with the system of the Peninsula electric road to San Jose, Saratoga and Los Gatos is regarded by real estate agents as a step toward the proper development and opening up of the peninsula, says the San Jose Times.

While no statement has yet been made public of the route of this new line, it is generally conceded that it will closely follow the steam line, with the stopping places at more fequent intervals and feeders that will be extended from the main trunk lines as business develops.

A transfer system to these feeders will bring the lands lying at present outside the range of easy walking distance into greater prominence and accessibility. The reduction in railroad fares, which go into effect November 1st, have been substantial and material. The The week-day commutation ticket is one that is a special factor, and while all of the rates have not been announced it is believed that some new forms of tickets, giving the commuter and the family the benefit of much better rates, will be in operation the first of next month.

The influence of the new electric line and reduced rates are already being felt by agents of peninsula properties.

PESCADERO BOY SUFFERS DANGEROUS RIFLE WOUND

Donald Laskey, the ten-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Laskey of Pescadero, is lying at Mrs. Huling's sanitarium in this city fighting a desperate battle for his life against the effects of a dangerous gunshot wound. The Laskeys reside near the Sunnyside school some distance from Pescadero. Last Saturday the boy and several companions were playing with a small 22 rifle and in some way the weapon was discharged, the bullet striking Donald in the right side. Dr. Thompson of Pescadero was summoned and on his advice the boy was hurried to this city in the doctor's automobile, accompanied by his parents. He has since been under the care of Dr. Taggart. The bullet entered the right side, passed through the liver and stomach and the lower lobes of the lungs and lodged in the back of the left lung cavity. It is a desperate case with the chances very much against the little fellow's recovery. His physician and parents have not given up hope however.

Last evening the injured boy was reported to be improved.

VETERAN PYTHIANS ARE HONORED BY LODGE.

A pretty ceremony took place at San Mateo Monday night in which seven veteran members of Redwood lodge, Knights of Pythias, were presented with veteran's jewels by their fellow members. The event was a notable one and was the occasion of a large gathering, including the families of the members. Those who were honored were J. W. Glennan, ranking first, Wellington Orton, P. P. Chamberlain, Geo. W. Lovie, Louis Werder, E. O. Rhodes and B. F. Yount. All of the gentlemen named have been members of the lodge for over twenty-five years, joining when it was located in this city and continuing their membership when the lodge was transferred to San Mateo. Redwood lodge is now one of the strong fraternal organizations of the county.

DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE IS A NATIVE SON

E. J. Crane, candidate for the Assembly from this county, was born in Watsonville, January 6th, 1864, moving to Stockton the year following. He graduated from the public schools of that city in 1880, and entered the Stockton Furniture Company, serving seven years at his trade. He came to San Francisco in 1887, and entered the employ of the Geo. H. Dillman Furniture Company in the capacity of foreman, which position he held for sixteen years. On Mr. Dillman's retirement from business, Mr. Crane associated himself with the Tamm and Nolan Varnish Company, being vice president. Later he started in business for himself and moved to Menlo Park in 1898, where he resides at the present time.

While residing in San Francisco Mr. Crane took a lively interest in the work of the Democratic party. He was among the first to identify himself with the reorganized Democratic party under the leadership of Judge J. F. Sullivan.

At the Democratic Convention of 1896, Mr. Eugene Duprey, chairman, appointed a committee of eighteen, one from each assembly district and seven at large, with full power to reorganize the Democratic party of the City and County of San Francisco.

The following is the personnel of that committee at large: Judge E. R. Garber, W. H. Metson, Geo. D. Chadburne, Samuel Branehart, Wm. P. Sullivan, Alex Vogelsang, E. J. Crane.

The work of reorganization performed by these men was so thorough that not one of the men nominated by them or any of those since placed before the people by the party failed in their duty as public officers. They have been a credit both to the party and the City and County of San Francisco.

Since living in San Mateo county Mr. Crane has continued his active interest in the party, always working for its welfare.

Services were held by Rev. C. H. Stevens of the Congregational church. The pall bearers were H. W. Schaberg, George West, J. F. Johnston, J. C. Barg, Arnold Hess and Jas. E. Rogers.

Mr. Groner was a brewer by occupation, though for many years he had led a retired life. He was well liked by his friends and neighbors and his death is the occasion of much regret.

NEW GRAND JURY SWORN IN, BEGINS ITS WORK.

The new grand jury was empanelled Tuesday. Chase Littlejohn of this city was made foreman. In charging the jury Judge Buck gave the members explicit instructions as to their duties. If in their judgement they found it necessary to present indictments, the court assured them that they were so empowered. He believed, however that the district attorney had been diligent in the performance of his duties and they would not be called upon to exercise this authority. They were carefully instructed in the way to proceed should they find it necessary to return indictments. The court charged the jury to carefully look into the affairs of the poor farm and the county jail. The latter institution, he suggested, was in need of such improvement as would make it more habitable and sanitary. The jury was admonished to examine the county's records and books of accounts and to employ an expert if necessary.

The following is the personnel of the new grand jury:

R. D. Savage, Halfmoon Bay.
Chase Littlejohn, Redwood City.
Chas. Jellinck, Burlingame.
W. J. Murray, Menlo Park.
John Christ, Redwood City.

CITY OFFICIAL COMMENDS DEVELOPMENT ASSOCIATION.

Percy V. Long, the city attorney of San Francisco, has written a letter of congratulation to the board of governors of the County Development Association on the good results of its campaign for cheaper railroad fairs down the peninsula. Mr. Long's letter concludes with the following complimentary lines:

You have succeeded in making the Southern Pacific Railway Company realize the merit of your demand and, what is of far greater value, the company has displayed a most commendable spirit in the granting to the fartherest limit the concessions requested.

You are entitled to the approval of every good citizen on the peninsula for the really wonderful work done and the services rendered to the traveling public. The impetus given the growth of the communities on the peninsula cannot be over estimated, and I think I would not be doing my full duty if I did not fully approve and endorse the good work that you and your committee have done, and I trust that the good people of your community will add their endorsement.

Mrs. Thomas Dugan of San Jose is the guest of friends in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brown have returned home after two months passed in San Francisco and Sonoma.

BOOST AND YOU CREATE CONFIDENCE.

With John MacBain in the Board of Supervisors the people of the Third district can be assured of good roads of the kind that will last.

No man in the First district is more alive to the needs of that section of the county than is H. C. tio than is H. C. Rodgers. As a member of the board of supervisors, he may be depended upon to give that section a system of highways the county will be proud of.

If the aim of the Bull Moose party is to secure the election of the Democratic National ticket —and such appears to be the case in this state at least—the indications seem to be that they are succeeding even beyond their hopes. From every portion of the state come evidences of bitter resentment on the part of adherents of the Republican party and threats of reprisal. And this is not much to be wondered at.

Deprived of their right of franchise by the tricks of the Johnson political machine, it is not to be wondered at that men who have stood long by the Republican party should prefer the company of an open and honorable opponent to that of a convert and designing enemy.

Few men could be found as well fitted to represent the people of the First district in the Board of Supervisors—certainly none who are better qualified—than is H. C. Rodgers, the Republican nominee. A man of the people, Mr. Rodgers is fully alive to the needs and interests of the people who he seeks to represent. Long a resident of the district, he is fully informed a s to the needs and opportunities.

Accustomed, as he has been for all the years of his best manhood to earning his sustenance by the actual labors of his own hands, he has been well schooled in that p ac'tical spirit of economy which is so essential in one entrusted with the experience of of public funds. At the same time, his business experience has been such that he is awake to the necessity for the adoption of modern methods in the larger affairs of public life.

John MacBain needs neither vindication nor explanation before the peopled of San Mateo county. During all of his long residence here his life has been an open book. In all of his long career, both as a private citizen and a public official, he has never been even suspected of either questionable methods or lack of executive or business ability.

While a member of the board of supervisors the public received the best that could be derived from these stirling traits. In the management of public affairs he was ever on the alert to protect the interests of the people he was selected to represent. Every dollar of the public funds at his disposal was carefully conserved and expended with the best of business and mechanical judgment. When roads were to be built or repaired, he knew how to give the best that the money at hand would secure. Not a penny of the money was wasted in experiment.

Card of Thanks.

We, the undersigned, take this means of thanking all those who assisted during the illness and at the death of Mr. Groner. We also desire to thank all the kind friends for their expressions of sympathy and many floral offerings. Mrs M. C. Groner and Mrs. E. S. Gould.

The regular meeting of Geo. S. Evans Relief Corps will be held Friday afternoon.

As a means of arousing interest and also as a source of information to live people, five boys of the high school, on the evening of November 2d are to give talks on the political situation. Ray Griffin will discuss the qualifications of Wilson, Frank Griffin will set forth reasons why Roosevelt should be elected, while Charles Newhall will explain why Taft is the logical candidate. Earle Elkerenkotter and Andrew Stewart will uphold the claims of the Socialists and Prohibitionists.

The local Red Cross society is in receipt of a telegram from headquarters at Washington, D. C. asking for financial contributions and trained nurses for the Greek army. Any donations of money that are sent to Mrs. Robert Brown will be acknowledged and promptly forwarded.

JOHN MacBAIN, Republican Nominee for Supervisor Third District.

REDWOOD CITY MAN TO JOIN ARMY OF GREECE

Although more than two years ago he had officially declared his intention to forswear allegience to his king and become a citizen of the United States, D. Demitropulos, who for some time past has been a resident of this city, has responded to the promptings of the call of fatherland and is now on his way to join the armies of Greece. Mr. Demitropulos left here last evening for San Francisco, where he will join a large contingent of his fellow countrymen who depart from that city this evening enroute for their native land and the hazards of a soldier's life.

This is not the first time Mr Demitropulos has returned to his native land after a visit to this country. A native of Logga, Greece, he first came to the United States, a little more than six years ago, but after a short stay returned to his home, his departure p obably being hastened by the unpleasant experience of the "big shake." He returned to California in the early part of the year 1910, and after being here a year, decided that he would make this his permanent home and took the first steps to become a citizen of this country. Nor will this be his first experience at soldering in the armes of his native country. As required under the general laws of Greece, which demand military service of every young man, he spent the first two years after arriving at the age of majority in the army. In fact so stringent are the military laws of the country that during the time of his visit home he was required to undergo military drill on two occaisons, when the reserve forces were being made famfliar with the use of a new arm adopted for the service.

Mr. Demitropulos states that there are several other youngnatives of Greece who will within a short time depart for their native homes to take up service in the army of their country. While many of these go voluntarily and as an act of patriotism, as a matter of fact, he stated, this service is almost compulsory unless they are ready to forever expatriate themselves. Under the laws of Greece, every citizen of th country, according to age, must hold himself in readiness for service in case of conflict, and falure to report may be punished by severe imprisonment at any time he may come within the jurisdiction of the law. Thus, should any man liable to this service, regardless of his place of residence at the time, fail to report, should he ever return to his native land be liable to arrest and possible long imprisonment.

Mr. Demitropulos has been a resident of this city for some time, having been connected with the Paris Restaurant since its establishment. A young man of good habits and pleasing ways he has made many friends, and in his departure he will bear with him their best wishes for an unharmed military experience and a safe return.

The trustees of the grammar school have decided to erect a manual training labratory to the rear of the school property. It will be used by the pupils of the high school and students of the grammar school taking the course. The building will cots about $2000.

The people expect honest, good roads and lights from Jim Casey. He promised these things and even his bitterest opponent must admit that he has kept his promises. There is neither graft nor extravagance under his management. The roads and lights speak for themselves. The people like a man in office that uses their money as carefully as if it were his own. They are not inclined to turn down such a man. When Mr. Casey took office his township was in debt nearly $15,000. This debt has been paid, several new bridges have been made, nine concrete bridges built, four lighting dstricts formed and today his township has on hand $15,000 and the tax-rate lowered 26 cents on the $100. With such a record is is easy to see why the voters of the First township are unanimous for Jim Casey's reelection.

This is the first time in the history of San Mateo county that a poultry show has been attempted, and to be truthful it proved itself to be of more importance than the general public cared to admit, which was cleary evident by the attendance and interest shown. It will be surprising to the average to learn that, although there was practically no publicity foregoing the undertaking, very nearly 85 birds were landed for the exhibition, of which nearly all were awarded premiums.

The Judge acquitted himself first-rate and donned his duster with the promise that he would give every one a square deal. This he did by taking especial pains in comparing the specimens and giving the blue to the most deserving. Everybody is satisfied and the chances for another exhibit in the year 1913, a better one no doubt, are very promising.

The exhibitors of this show thank the ladies of the Redwood City Woman's Club for their kind assistance and willingness to share their hall with the poultry fraternity. ASSEMBLYMAN BROWN FAVORS COAST HIGHWAY

Assemblyman Henry Ward Brown favors a state highway from Pescadero to the California Redwood Park, as the following letter which has been handed us shows, and addressed to a gentleman at Pescadero:

"At the last session of the Legislature I introduced a bill, (a printed copy of which I enclose) making an appropriation of $10,000 for the purpose of defraying the cost of locating, Surveying and contsructing a state highway from Pescadero to the California Redwood Park. If you think this road should be built, will you take the matter up with some of the leading men of your locality, who also favor the project, and furnish me a general idea of the route the road should follow. The Sempivirens club propose making an effort at the next session of the Legislature for a road to the park, from another direction, through Santa Clara and Santa Cruz counties. Both should be built. I do not like to give up theidea of a road from Pescadero, and if I am elected to the Assembly at the coming election I shall renew my efforts to get an appropriation from the state for the building of this road; and hope I can get data from leading citizens of your locality showing the necessity for the road and the route it should follow, to enable me to make a successful presentation of the matter to the proper state authorities as well as to the Legislature.

I shall be in Pescadero in a few days, and will talk the matter over with you and others. Yours truly

HENRY WARD BROWN.

After two and a half months of desultory work the State highway is now asuming a tenor of advancement that puts it in a way to be well advanced before midwinter, when the storms of the season may intervene and make progress an uncertain element in construction work.
